DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 21-29 and 31-37 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Yoo in view of May (3,747, 275).

Yoo discloses an elevator car having a door, wall, and seal between the door and wall. Yoo discloses the seal can be any type of seal. However, Yoo does not disclose a seal in a groove having a movable wall and actuator means. May teaches a seal between a door and wall that effectively seals against passage of unwanted elements, is self contained, and is protected from damage. May teaches providing a seal in a groove 23 in the door 12 or wall 18. The seal has a hollow body 19 and a movable wall (near line 25) that moves across the gap into contact with the opposite surface. An actuator 27 supplies compressed air to the hollow body. The seal is retained in the groove in a relieved state so that that the seal is not damaged. Therefore, it would have been obvious for one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use the seal device taught by May to provide a self-contained, protected, and effective seal between the door and wall of the elevator car of Yoo.

Regarding claims 32 and 37, changing the shape of the seal to a square is not considered inventive. See In re Dailey, 149 USPQ 47 (CCPA 1966). Further, square inflatable seals are known, as evidenced by Anderson and Pot. Therefore, it would have been obvious for one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to make the seal square.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 30 and 38 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Although not applied as a rejection in this action, please note that Yoo can be modified with Knapp and Covey. Covey teaches a groove mounted inflatable seal as an improvement over a bracket mounted inflatable seal. Additional references have been provided to show the known use of inflatable seals to seal doors of all types and applications.

Conclusion

5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37

Art Unit: 3673

CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
